I'm not sure how I missed this, but Bryce, K7UA, updated and published the second edition of The New DXers Handbook in January. I like this book. Even more, I like the price. It's available for free from the author's website, K7UA.Com. (I'm having trouble accessing his site today, and Bryce says, "About once a month something like this seems to happen [for some people]," so don't be surprised if you have trouble, too.)

A bit of advice to new DXers. DXing is addicting. Once you get hooked you will work very hard to get a new country, especially if it is a rare one. Some of the rare entities may not have anyone operate from them for long periods of time... like 20 years! To get on the Honor Roll, you can't afford to miss
